

Leadership: Inspire yourself and others

Use this discussion guide to spark conversations at home surrounding this topic. You will see various levels of questions grouped by difficulty level. Pick and choose what questions are appropriate for your family.

- Who is a leader in our community?

- Why is it important to do the right thing even when nobody is watching?

- Discuss role models your family looks up to, and talk about why.
.....

- How can kids or you be a leader?

- Think with a family member about what qualities you already have that will help you be a good leader.

- Ask a family member about any leadership roles they've had, and what they learned from that experience.
.....

- Why is it important to do the right thing even when nobody is watching?

- Think about what qualities you already have that will help you be a good leader and share them with a family member

Certificate of Achievement

DIRECTIONS

Cut out this leadership acknowledgment certificate and fill it out with your family member.

LEADERSHIP
INSPIRE YOURSELF & OTHERS

LEADER AWARD

My Child, _____ Was a leader at home when:

The habit used was:

- Be Proactive
- Begin with the end in mind
- Think win-win
- Seek first to understand, then to be understood.
- Sharpen the saw
- Put first things first
- Synergize

"To be a leader is to inspire yourself and others!"